

STILL TRYING LIQUOR CASES

Federal Court Finds Two Not Guilty, Dismisses One, to Try Another.

Judge W. R. Smith, of the United States district court, is still engaged in the trial of charges of selling liquor to soldiers. Harry Ketchum and Pat Stokes were found not guilty, while the case against Oario Tarrin was dismissed at the government's motion, during the session Tuesday afternoon. Wednesday the trial of Martin Ayala was taken up.

The remainder of this week is expected to be taken up in the trial of liquor cases, and next week the other charges will be taken up, among them being that against Edward R. Stone, former special agent of the department of justice, indicted on a charge of accepting a bribe.

Motorcops Bring In Seven Jitneys From "Magoffin Race Track"

Seven Park jitneys were lined up in front of the police station Wednesday morning, their owners awaiting trial on charges of speeding. Some one had telephoned police headquarters at an early hour inquiring whether they knew anything at the station of the "Magoffin race track," alleging that the jitneys on that thoroughfare were running at a speed of almost twice what the law allows.

Accordingly Capt. Harry Phoenix, dispatched Ed Tarrin and M. P. Schoerer to look into the matter, and within a couple of hours they had booked seven jitney drivers, now alleged to have been running at a 37-mile an hour clip.

"They even have a signaling system," said officer Tarrin. "As soon as the one at the head of the line sees an officer, he signals the others to slow up."

15TH YEAR

EL PASO, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1917.

TEXAS' MOST HOMELIKE AND PROGRESSIVE STORE

Would You Like to Get $40 Material in A Fall Suit At $25? You Can! We're Selling Them! This Is How We Can Do It:

Flocks Of Serge Frocks $15 Will Bring One Down!

DON'T miss this chance. War is going to make wool fabrics dearer with each week that passes, and it stands to reason that you probably can't get dresses of this quality later in the season for this price.

They're cut on such good lines. Always the straight effects—the snug fitting sleeves—and the many pleats.

One particularly stunning navy serge has a skirt of pleats that are hardly half an inch wide, and a touch of gold colored khaki kool at the collar and cuffs.

Another smart blue serge has a vestee of white pique, and is trimmed with bands of silk braiding.

There's a brown one embroidered with gold thread and loosely girdled.

You may choose from a variety of colors with blues predominating.

The materials are excellent—closely woven, heavy and firm. And the trimmings range from huge pearl buttons, gold threaded embroidery to wee cloth covered buttons and rows of silky braid.

To get such dresses for $15 is an opportunity worth coming a long way for. —(Fifth Floor)

Plush Coats With Kit Coney Collars, $16.50

THERE has been the largest increase in plush of almost any fabric. We contracted for our coats about nine months ago, based on the old price of plush. These plush coats are copied after fur coats. They are plain and rich, full belted styles, with deep cuffs and pockets. They have beautiful, large, kit coney collars. Plush coats are to be very fashionable this season, and we know that women will be glad to get these extra fine plush coats at the above price. And another thing—buy your plush coat from a reliable store such as "The Popular," and then you will be sure of satisfaction. —(Fifth Floor)

The Largest Blouse Shop In The Southwest

"THE POPULAR'S" Blouse Shop is the largest in the Southwest and the values we offer in this shop are not only the best in El Paso, but the best in the United States. A broad statement, we know, but we are absolutely sure that it is true.

Each day adds to our already large and attractive selection of Fall blouses. Many new ones to see tomorrow. Every possible color and combination of colors in vogue for the new season finds representation in our collection. From the stunning and striking black and white and white and black creations to the light and dashing tones, as well as the more subdued navies, browns, etc., are all shown here. Some of the new models are elaborately beaded and embroidered and other of the new Blouses are strictly tailored. We can match your new Fall Suit to your entire satisfaction. Prices range from $2.95 to $39.50. —(Fifth Floor)

The New Millinery Is Fascinating

CROWNS may lie heavily on some folks' heads these days, but with the Fall hats, crowns are prevailing soft and "comfy." Quite an innovation in the millinery modes, but both the soft crown and the soft brim are receiving hearty welcomes.

Even among the untrimmed hats there is choice upon choice of soft crowns. With brims that may be tricorns, chin chins, colonial, sailors, small, medium or large, or turbans. In taupe, purple, brown, navy, beetroot and black. Every hat of imported Lyons velvet, edges bound in grosgrain ribbon. We feature Lyons Velvet untrimmed shapes as low as $1.95.

In the trimmed hat section of the Millinery Salons, there is a veritable field of hats. Not a flowering field, but one marked by an almost Puritanical severity in the matter of trimming. With everything depending upon the "lines" and the materials. Perhaps it is the lack of trimming that makes possible such excellent quality velvet, plush and panne velvets. Whether black, royal purple, Concord, taupe, Senegalis or cinnamon brown, the quality's there, the style is there and at prices quite within the reach of all. $5, $7.50, $10 up. Visit this department tomorrow. —(Fifth Floor)
